Teaming research into materials and into shapes to create an item of interior décor that epitomises modernity. Pangea is a stackable chair in resistant plastic material. Privileging understated shades, it is available in five colours, a characteristic that allows it to integrate perfectly in every furnishing context. Stable and resistant to atmospheric agents, comfortable, light-weight and easy to handle, it is suitable for indoor, outdoor and contract use. Pangea is a gentle seat, but one with strong lines, characterised by balanced proportions.
