

BONALDO

Hang up

A touch of movement, an unusual play highlighted by contrasting lines. Hang up stands out for the irregular position of the two elements of which it is composed: the shape of the mirror makes it seem like it has been released from the frame. The available finishings make it suitable for any stylistic context: the wooden frame is in fact available lacquered in two elegant colours or in two different types of solid wood. Positionable both vertically and horizontally, Hang up represents an ironic and unequivocally contemporary sign with great sculptural impact, the result of refined aesthetic research. A true protagonist, one that helps to furnish the environments in an original way and enlarge the spaces, thanks to its large reflective surface.
